

Hozier

Hozier is a wizard with a pen. His songs are jam packed with knowledge and insight. Every sound is so rich, each pluck of the guitar string is felt down to the bone. I saw Hozier in a little abandoned train station in Salt Lake City, Utah.

The event was so intimate, even though I was towards the back of the crowd, I felt like it was just me and Hozier in the room. His voice is angelic, his voice soared through each note without even trying. His alternative rock music had fans captivated with every single word that came out of his mouth. He sang about Greek Gods, historical events and even some controversial topics. He has a beautiful message of even if you suck at singing, sing it anyways. "You don't have to sing it nice, but honey, sing it strong". Although it made the audience sound terrible, everyone felt a strong connection to Hozier and would in-fact, sing loud and horrible for him.
